

UK Lean Summit 2015

Lean Transformation: Developing the Capability to Improve the Work

As part of our mission to help organisations with their Lean journeys the Lean Enterprise Academy is holding its annual UK Lean Summit at Chesford Grange Hotel, Kenilworth.

- 6 Presentations
- 8 Learning Sessions
- 2 Lean Masterclasses

The purpose of the Summit is as follows:

- To raise consciousness of the latest developments in Lean Thinking and Practice
- To provide insight into practical ways to get started, deepen or enhance your Lean journey
- To enable participants to build their own network of Lean Thinkers

We do this by:

- Bringing together the best Lean practitioners and sensei in the Lean world for participants to learn from
- Building time into the programme for participants to network
- Providing a variety of learning situations – including pre-Summit workshops on leading edge topics, keynote talks, interactive learning sessions and panel discussions
- Enabling groups from the same organisations to come to the Summit to learn together

Key questions for this year's UK Lean Summit:

- What are the models of Lean transformation?
- How do you use the Lean Transformation Framework (LTF) to transform your business?
- How do I lead and coach the transformation?
- What are the fundamentals required to develop a Lean organisation?
- How do the best companies develop and coach leadership to build capability?
- How can we apply Lean to ourselves?
- How do you apply Lean Thinking beyond operations to sales environments?
- What can the start-up and more traditional Lean movements learn from each other?

Why attend the summit? - Here's what the attendees of the 2014 event told us:

- The best place I know to learn about Lean
- Chance to see some of the most inspiring and future shaping people in Lean
- Taking time out to surround oneself with the passion and expertise gives both knowledge and renewed enthusiasm for helping other to learn
- This was inspirational for one. Got more out of these two days than I could imagine. Great way to re-invigorate
- The opportunity to network and learn from others is incredibly valuable. To be able to share successes and also to get advice when you are facing setbacks cannot be measured
- I learned so much. It gave me so much energy to be with likeminded people and provided motivation to continue. It's given me space to see my own value and what I need to focus on in the next 12 months too

This is a unique opportunity for the Lean Enterprise Academy's community to come together to learn and share
